7. Code of Conduct

- All delegates must dress in Western Business Attire (WBA) or School uniform while at IWS 2022. As a general rule, IWS 2022 requires that delegates dress in a suit jacket, slacks or skirt, dress shirt with tie, and dress shoes. National Attire is also permitted.
- All delegates are expected to remain "in character" while at IWS 2022 by consistently advocating the interests and representing the policies of the country assigned. To act "in character" also entails displaying respect for the opinions and ideas of fellow delegates, even if these opinions and ideas conflict with a given delegate's own country's priorities. Delegates are expected to prepare adequately for active participation in committee sessions.
- Delegates found to be in violation of IWS 2022's Security Policies may be barred from further participation at IWS and/or expelled from the conference without refund at the discretion of the Secretary-General.

- Delegates who disrupt committee sessions or other conference events may be barred from further participation at IWS 2022 and/or expelled from the conference without refund at the discretion of the Secretary-General.
- All Faculty Advisors are responsible for the safety, well-being, and conduct of their delegates.
- The educational quality of IWS 2022 is primarily dependent on all delegates' active and professional participation. Faculty Advisors can ensure this by monitoring their student's attendance at committee sessions and helping them understand the skills of diplomacy as practiced at IWS 2022.
- During the conference, Faculty Advisors are encouraged to attend Faculty Advisor meetings and feedback sessions, to observe their students from the back of committee rooms, and even to advise students on substantive issues. However, participation in the committee process must be left to the delegates and the IWS 2022 staff.
- Faculty Advisors are required to assist the IWS 2022 staff in enforcing Security Policies, Dress Code, and the IWS 2022 terms and conditions with regards to their school's delegates. Faculty Advisors are responsible for ensuring that their students follow the terms and conditions.
- Faculty Advisors are responsible for ensuring that their students follow the terms and conditions. IWS 2022 will not tolerate any instances of harassment or discrimination, including but not limited to those based on race, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, or disability. Further, IWS 2022 will not tolerate any instances of inappropriate behavior or unwelcome advances of a sexual nature. If any delegate, staff, or Advisor believes they have encountered harassment or discrimination, which results in a hostile working environment or disparate treatment, they are encouraged to bring it to the attention of the Secretary-General or another member of the Secretariat. The Secretary-General and Conference Director will then evaluate the report and involve the appropriate personnel which may include Faculty Advisors. Based on their findings of the investigation, IWS 2022 may:
  - Take no action;
  - Issue a verbal reprimand;
  - Expel the offending individual from IWS 2022 without refund;
  - Bar the delegation of the offending individual from future participation at IWS 2022 ; and/or,
  - Take other actions as deemed necessary and appropriate.

8. Exceptions and Violations

The Secretary-General and Director-General are the only staff members who are allowed to grant exceptions or extensions to conference policies and deadlines. Neither IWS 2022, nor Muniversiti EdCorp. are liable for erroneous statements made by other members of IWS 2022 staff regarding conference policies listed—and not listed—herein.

Violation of the policies listed in these terms and conditions may result in the revocation of assigned seats with no refund. Serious violation of these policies or those listed in the conference handbook regarding conduct may result in expulsion from the conference with no refund and potential prevention of registration for all future IWS 2022 conferences.

9. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These terms and conditions are governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of India and any dispute shall exclusively be subject to the jurisdiction of the appropriate Courts situated at Indore, India

10. Force Majeure

IWS 2022 shall not be deemed in default of this Agreement, nor shall it hold the other Party responsible for, any cessation, interruption or delay in the performance of its obligations (excluding payment obligations) due to earthquake, flood, fire, storm, natural disaster, act of God, war, terrorism, armed conflict, labor strike, lockout, boycott, or other similar events beyond the reasonable control of the Party, provided that the Party relying upon this provision: (a) gives prompt written notice thereof, and (b) takes all steps reasonably necessary to mitigate the effects of the force majeure event. If a force majeure event extends for a period in excess of 30 days in the aggregate, either Party may immediately terminate this Agreement upon written notice.
